Honorable James E. Van Zandt
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Van Zandt:

Thank you for your letter of 12 August 1959 regarding Mr.

It appears that [blank] would be qualified for a clerical position with us but we shall need more information concerning his background and interests before reaching a final conclusion. We are sending him application materials and a brochure describing opportunities and requirements in the clerical field to assist in this regard. A copy of our letter transmitting these materials to him is enclosed for your information.

We appreciate your bringing this young man to our attention and shall advise you regarding the outcome of his application. As you requested, we are returning the letter which you received from him.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
